1. BACKGROUND TO THE PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT

- 1.1 The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 (the “Act”) was enacted on 03 February 2000, giving effect to the constitutional right in terms of section 32 of the Bill of Rights contained in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa 108 of 1996 (the “Constitution”) of access to any information held by the state and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise of protection of any rights.
- 1.2 In terms of Section 51 of the Act, all Private Bodies are required to compile an Information Manual (“PAIA Manual”).
- 1.3 Where a request is made in terms of the Act, the body to whom the request is made is obliged to release the information, subject to applicable legislative and/or regulatory requirements, except where the Act expressly provides that the information may be adopted when requesting information from a public or private body.

2. PURPOSE OF THE PAIA MANUAL

- 2.1 The purpose of the PAIA is to promote the right of access to information, to foster a culture of transparency and accountability within Dredging Africa, by giving the right to information that is required to the exercise or protection of any right and to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to exercise and protect their rights.
- 2.2 In order to promote effective governance of private bodies, it is necessary to ensure that everyone is empowered and educated to understand their rights in relation to public and private bodies.
- 2.3 Section 9 of the Act recognises that the right to access information cannot be unlimited and should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:
 - 2.3.1 Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
 - 2.3.2 Commercial confidentiality; and
 - 2.3.3 Effective, efficient and good governance;
